ACT Philosophy

ACT stands for Accessible Creativity Transforms. Program planners are united in the knowledge that creativity provides each of us with the opportunity to connect, express, and grow, ultimately transforming ourselves and the community for the better. Our mission is to make sure people of all dis/abilities are able to access creativity. This event is designed to connect people, raise awareness of ability, transform perceptions, and provide training to increase inclusion.

ACT Goals

- Increase acceptance of dis/ability utilizing the arts and creativity as the vehicle for understanding.
- Increase awareness of accessible, creative activities and appreciation for diversity of art and artistic expression.
- Expand opportunities for collaboration between people, organizations, and cultural institutions, thus increasing opportunities for people of all dis/abilities to participate in the arts and the community.
- Provide resources and motivation for stakeholders to prioritize accessibility.
- Provide income to artists/creatives of all abilities and levels of professionalism

ACT Audience

- work in all sectors – education, health, cultural organizations, rehabilitation spaces, community centers, etc.;
- works for all types of organizations – performing arts centers, museums, theaters, state arts agencies, parks, zoos, arenas, service providers, schools, etc.;
